WOMEN'S HOCKEY

The Concordia Women's hockey team improved their record to 10-1-1 with a win and a tie this weekend. On Friday night, Concordia hockey star Therese Brisson contributed 3 goals and 2 assists in a 7-0 drubbing of John Abbott College. Last season Brisson led the Q.I.W.H.L. in scoring with 20 goals and 28 assists in 16 games.

On Saturday the Stingers faced N.C.A.A. powerhouse Dartmouth College from the Ivy League. The game ended in a 1-1 draw with Debbie Gill scoring Concordia's lone goal.

The Stinger's next action is on Friday, November 20 at 6:15 p.m. The Stingers will face McGill at the Loyola Rink. The Stingers will also play host to Laval on Sunday, November 22 at 1:00 p.m.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Women's basketball team travelled to Halifax this past weekend for the Dalhousie Invitational Tournament. The Stingers started out Friday with a heartbreaking final second loss to U.N.B., 50-49. Both Carol Assalian and Karen Licorish contributed 11 points in a losing cause.

On Saturday, the Stingers were bombed 70-47 in a game where Coach Louisa Zerbe benched her starting five for most of the first half for disciplinary reasons. Suzie Czelnai netted 13 points for the Stingers.

Saturday's actions by Coach Zerbe paid dividends in Sunday's final game. The Stingers played a controlled game as they defeated Acadia 63-59. Suzie Czelnai played a strong game and contributed 23 points. Czelnai, a rookie from Montreal, has averaged 18 points a game this year and has been a pleasant surprise to Coach Zerbe. Carol Assalian scored 15 points and continues to improve her floor leadership skills.

Concordia faces Carleton on Friday, November 20 at 8:00 p.m. in the 16th Annual Women's Concordia Basketball Classic. The tournament opens up at 2:00 p.m. with McGill facing Ottawa. All games will be played at the Loyola Gym.
